The question of issuing certain rules re travelling allowance to medical officers & subordinates for journeys performed by them to render medical aid to Govt Servants has been taken up in connection with the draft rules regulating the private practice of medical officers. The Senior Surgeon has been already informed in this office no. X 206 / Med 89-06 of 52

8.7.06 that the rules will be issued as early as possible.

As to the stage in which the question re: draft rules referred to above stands, it is submitted that the draft rules as approved by Mr. Balasundaram Iyer have been typed; and it is likely that the draft rules may be ready for forwardal for the Senior Surgeon's opinion shortly, in less than about a fortnight.

The final issue of the rules will if appd, be awaited & then the Senior Surgeon's letters filed. In the meantime this file may be sent to Mr. Balasundaram Iyer for a consideration Also 20.8.06 of the Senior Surgeon's suggestion contained in Sl no 54

Sir,

I have the honor to invite your attention to Go--vernment Order No.Fl.2435-6/S & A 69-07-22 dated 22-11-07 where it is stated that the general question regarding the medical attendance to officers at State cost etc., is still under consideration of Government.

I beg that early orders be issued. The matter seems perfectly clear: A Medical Officer is called to see an officer at the request of the Medical Officer's regular official Medical Advisor. It appears to me it is his duty to go and consult as desired. Now the question arises who is to bear the expenses of the Consultant's journey? In British Service the patient bears the expense and pays a regular fee. But if that is not to be the case here, it must either be the Consultant himself or Government. These are the issues, and they seem to me to be perfectly plain. I dont suppose it will be proposed that the Consultant -- shall bear the cost himself - So the matter is reduced to Government bearing the cost. If Government thinks any -- abuse likely to arise by Medical Officers being called un--necessarily, the check suggested in my No.G.211 dated 18-9-1907, Viz.- that before the travelling allowance bill is paid the Senior Surgeon should be furnished with details of the case and give his opinion as to whether the consult-ation was necessary or not, may be put in force.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
